KENOSHA KINGFISH STORYLINES

Who's Wears the Crown: Tyler Horner gets the crown despite the Kingfish loss. Horner had his first extra base hit in a multi-hit game performance that saw him drive in the go-ahead run at the time in the 6th.

What's for Dinner: The Kalamazoo Growlers are the bait. Kalamazoo has had their number so far this year, the Growlers are 9-2 against the Kingfish this year and have won the last six duels.

Who is King of the Hill: Luke Weber takes the hill. The righty has been stellar pitching to 3.38 ERA. He was a reliever for the majority of the season, but now a mainstay in the rotation. This is his second start against the Growlers. He threw four innings of two run ball in his first.

WHAT A WIN DOES

- Makes everyone feel good
- Would allow the Kingfish to gain a game on Kalamazoo for next best overall behind Traverse City
